

You Spoke. We Listened.

The New York State Office of Victim Services (OVS) is pleased to announce upcoming training opportunities for victim advocates, program managers and other victim services professionals. Training topics and structure have been developed in response to the feedback from our state-wide training needs assessment conducted this spring.

Each training opportunity is free and will be offered in five regional locations across the state. Additional detailed information, including specific training registration guidelines, will be announced 6-8 weeks before each scheduled start date.

So mark your calendars and save the dates:
