Moving From Compliance to Response to Prevention:

SUNY is pleased to invite you to join us at the summer 2017 training series in sexual and interpersonal violence compliance, response and prevention, this July and August. These trainings are open to professionals from Independent and Proprietary institutions from New York and other states, and feature important and cutting-edge information.

More information and registration at the website \(some trainings offered in multiple locations\).

Learn about your compliance requirements pursuant to the Clery Act/VAWA, Title IX, and New York Education Law 129-B. This will be a one-day comprehensive approach and will feature easy to use (and free) resources and best practices for efficient compliance and work beyond compliance.

Join us at the Advanced Prevention Summit which will feature the best prevention programs from around the country. We are excited to announce our keynote speaker, Jane Clementi, mother of the late Tyler Clementi, presenting on Why Compliance Matters: A Personal Story. She will be joined by sessions in Green Dot, Bringing in the Bystander, 20:1, One Love, Culture of Respect, gender inclusiveness, marketing prevention information to students, effective online training, assessment of prevention programming, and more.

We also have two-day sessions on trauma-informed investigations featuring Dr. Jim Hopper of Harvard Medical School, Gary Kelly of the State Police, and Chantelle Cleary of the University at Albany which in two days will cover pertinent information on the effect of trauma on the brain and best practices in investigations.

Due to a generous grant, we are able to cut the registration price to only $45 per person (this includes all content, material, meals, and refreshments). Register here.

We look forward to seeing you at the trainings!
