Dear Colleague:

The New York State Office of Victim Services (OVS) is pleased to announce a new training course for mental health providers and current clinical program graduate students from OVS-funded organizations.

In partnership with the Institute for Disaster Mental Health at SUNY New Paltz (IDMH), Coping with Grief in Traumatic Loss: Theoretical Perspectives and Interventive Strategies is a 2-session virtual training (January 20 & 27, 2021) led by Dr. Kenneth Doka, Professor Emeritus at The College of New Rochelle and Senior Consultant to the Hospice Foundation of America.

This program is open to licensed NYS Mental Health Providers and/or current clinical program graduate students from OVS-funded organizations and will explore the most current theoretical perspectives on loss and will review of basic grief concepts and research on grief interventions. Sessions are free of charge and Social Work and Licensed Mental Health Counselor Continuing Education (CE) hours will be provided to those who meet eligible criteria.

Click here for more information and to register for this exciting new training opportunity.

This program is presented by the New York State Office of Victim Services in collaboration with the Institute for Disaster Mental Health at SUNY New Paltz (IDMH). CE hours are available through a partnership with University at Albany School of Social Welfare and School of Education.

On behalf of the New York State Office of Victim Services, thank you for your commitment to providing the highest quality services to innocent victims of crime in New York State.

Additional training information is always available in the OVS VAP Training Center and can now be accessed via VAP Connect, a NEW online forum for VAPs. Subscribe to future training correspondences from OVS by clicking the Subscribe Now! button below.
